M. H. Force, of Oatman, spent several days this week in Phenix.

E. S. Clark, the well known Prescott attorney, was a Kingman visitor this week.

Mrs. Charles Jensen and son departed this morning to her old home in New Jersey.

A number of Kingman people are going to Oatman to the big dance at that place this evening.

Mrs. J. P. Gideon, who has been visiting with her sons at Wendon, returned home this week.

Alex McCaskell has sold his residence in the north part of town to Chris Hoffman, who took possession a few days ago.

Judge Carl G. Krook is holding court in Yavapai county this week, having a number of important cases before him for trial.

Western Gasoline Engines and Hoists. Highest in efficiency, lowest in fuel consumption. Lovin & Withers Co. agents for Mohave county.

C. M. Stowe was called to Florida this week by the serious illness of his wife. Mrs. Stowe is reported to be very low and her life is despaired of.

Hon. A. Cornwall of the Big Sandy, was a Kingman visitor this week, having come here on business. He departed to his home on Thursday's stage.

Report comes from Union Pass that Judge N. M. Richardson is very ill at that place. An automobile went out there to bring the sick man to town this afternoon.

R. A. Clark has sold his residence in the Cohenour addition to Arthur Hale and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Clark have removed to Nevada where they intend to make their home.

H. E. Bierce, who is looking after the big copper operations at Mineral Park, returned yesterday from Los Angeles, where he attended to important business in connection with his mining enterprises.

Frank Van Marter has taken over the Beale barber shop and will personally conduct the place. Frank is an old timer in Kingman and the boys are sure that he will make a success of his undertaking.

Last Saturday the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs had an enjoyable banquet at the banquet rooms in the Odd Fellows building, there being a great gathering of the order to enjoy the feast of good things.

Robert Jacobson, who went to Mexico a few weeks ago, is home again. He did not go far enough south to butt into either Huerta or Diaz, but nevertheless he was not looking for either one of these warlike gentlemen.

J. C. Wilson, deputy state mine inspector, returned from Yavapai county last Thursday afternoon and departed yesterday to his home in Chloride. He reports that the country over which he traveled was deeply covered with snow.

J. A. Carrow, who has been laid up at his home the past month, the result of a fall from a wagon that he was loading, has gone to Los Angeles to enter one of the hospitals. He is reported to be getting along all right and will soon be home again.

Nickell & Co. opened their dry goods store in the Beale block last Wednesday and attracted a large buying crowd of people. The store is handsomely fitted up and the line of goods on display is sure to attract wide attention from the people of the county.

The new rooms for the use of the Arizona Central Bank are about ready for occupancy. The new furnishings for the bank have been put in place and only the painting remains to be done to make the place one of the most attractive banking offices in the country. Two vaults have been built of reinforced concrete, for the private use of the bank and for safety deposits.

M. I. Powers, treasurer of the Northern Arizona Good Roads Association, as well as holding the same official position with the Santa Fe-Grand Canyon and Needles National Highway Association, is a Kingman visitor, coming down from Flagstaff to look after his banking interests here.

Don't overlook the good roads dance at Elks hall tonight. The dance is to be one of the most memorable in the history of the county and everybody should be there. The boosters will all be out and the way they will do things will make everybody feel like tripping the light fantastic.

Sheriff Gideon returned from Florence a few days ago, where he left Jimmie Joe Brown at the penitentiary on an indeterminate sentence of from one to fourteen years for attempting to pass worthless checks. Brown confessed to the crime and got the lowest sentence possible.

The last number of the Arizona Magazine contains something good in the way of reading and excellent pictorial illustrations. Sharlott Hall has an article on "Our Northern Strip," and a number of other readable articles give life to that meritorious publication.

Miss Mina Carpenter, the seventeen year old daughter of C. E. Carpenter, died at the home of her father in Kingman last Wednesday morning. The young woman had been a sufferer from tuberculosis many years and her death was not unexpected. The remains were taken to Los Angeles for cremation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Purcell, who have been residing in Los Angeles the past year, arrived in Kingman last week and are considering making their home here. Mr. Purcell is interested in a big band of sheep that are being pastured in this county, having been brought here for the lambing season.

Several of the directors of the Kingman Copper company are in Kingman and have been looking after their interests at Mineral Park. It is understood that hereafter the work of developing the mines under option will be driven with a rush, the management believing that they have found something worth while.

Several thousand sheep were sheared at the shearing pens east of town this week and it is probable that many of them will be lost in the great storm that is now raging over this section. More than 10,000 sheep are expected here this month to feed upon the early weeds and grasses that the great storms assure.

T. A. Stephens, who was shot last week by Joe Prisk while attempting to burglarize the store of the Chloride Store company, had a hearing this week and entered a plea of guilty. He stated to the court that he got all that was coming to him. He appears to be suffering but slightly from the wound inflicted by the heavy charge of bird-shot.

The log book and valuable information of Arizona roads is being prepared for publication in Los Angeles. The work is under the charge of Hamilton and Locke, who logged the roads throughout Arizona and into California and New Mexico. When issued it will be one of the most valuable reference works ever issued on the roads of the southwest.

A Mexican goat herder was so badly injured by a freight train at Kingman station, Wednesday evening, that he died on the operating table a short time after the accident. The fellow had come in from the camp and spent the evening in convivial company and then tried to cross the track when a freight train was being cut at the Fourth street crossing. He was crawling under the cars when the train pulled up and he was caught beneath the wheels. His right leg was crushed above the knee, the left leg near the ankle and the left arm badly smashed. The poor fellow was taken from the rails and hurried to the office of Dr. Cowie, where he and Dr. Whiteside did everything possible to save his life. Nothing has been learned of his place of nativity or that he had relatives in this country.

There is no better medicine made for colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions, aids expectoration, and restores the system to a healthy condition. For sale by all dealers.

C. E. Walker, the well known Denver architect, who has the contract for the construction of the Elks Club rooms, arrived from that city a few days ago. The work is well along on the club rooms and the lodge room will be ready for occupancy within the next thirty days. When completed the structure will be one of the most comfortable homes for an order to be found in the state.

Judge L. M. Teale and John Brown have purchased the cattle ranch and all cattle of David Kayser. The ranch is situated near Hackberry in one of the best ranges in the county. We have not learned of the number of cattle on the range nor the price paid. The investment is a good one and the lucky fellows who have made the investment are sure to reap a big harvest.

Upon the return of Supervisor J. C. Potts from Phoenix the work of surveying a section of the road between Yucca and Topock will be undertaken. The work will consume some time and will be followed immediately by road building. Several routes said to be available will be gone over and the one that offers the greatest advantage in the way of upkeep and original cost of building will be adopted.

One of the greatest storms of the year fell throughout northern Arizona the past two days. Snow began falling in Kingman Thursday night and by morning the ground was covered with a coating of the beautiful. Intermittently during yesterday snow fell and throughout the night rain and snow fell alternately. The mountains are now covered to quite a depth with snow. The abundant precipitation insures a big crop of weeds and grasses on the ranges for cattle and sheep.

Jack Star came up from the Cheme-huevi mountains, where he has been running the hoister for the Yucca Copper company. He brought with him a table top that is unique. It is made from the cholla cactus, the branches having been sawed into strips and fitted together. The pithy part of the wood has been removed, giving the effect that a woodpecker would leave had he a chance at some old table top.

Peter Caffery is in from Layne Springs, where he has been looking after the property of the Arizona Alpha mining company and at the same time developing a mine close to that property. He reports having opened up a handsome streak of lead ore eighteen inches wide and carrying good values in lead, gold and silver. The vein in which this streak of ore occurs is about twenty feet wide and shows considerable mineralization.

Glen Catterall, who was convicted of embezzling money orders from the Gardena, California, postoffice, was sentenced to one year in the Los Angeles county jail, a few days ago. Catterall resided in Kingman about a year, going to California to take a position in the postoffice at Gardena. The young fellow had been arrested on various charges in California, resulting from the leading of a fast life.

The board of supervisors has ordered bids for plans for Mohave county's courthouse to be submitted and on the fifth day of March plans will be adopted from these offered for their approval. It is understood that quite a number of plans will be presented to the board from which selections will be made. Mohave county is entitled to something good from the money to be expended and we hope that the plans adopted will be the best that architect's skill can produce, and then it is up to the supervisors to see that the specifications are carried out to the letter.

This week the courthouse bonds were received from the bond purchasers and were duly signed up and expressed to Kansas City, where they will be turned over and the $80,000 in payment thereof received. As soon as the money is available it is the intention of the board of supervisors to begin active preparation for the erection of the courthouse. Plans are to be received and adopted at a meeting of the board to be held on the 4th or 5th of March, and as soon as this necessary step is taken the actual work on the big edifice will be put under way. Many plans are expected to be submitted and there is no reason why the board should not get the best that is possible for the money. Mohave county is now one of the richest counties in Arizona and nothing is too good for her people.

WE PROVE OR PAY

If you are weak and run-down and your blood is not as it should be, don't wait until next spring before you seek a remedy. Delay is dangerous. Renew your vitality and strength, and correct the impoverished condition of your blood, by using Rexall Blood Tablets.

For a sprain you will find Chamberlain's Liniment excellent. It allays the pain, removes the soreness, and soon restores the parts to a healthy condition. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.

Deputy Sheriff A. F. Harris, who went to Los Angeles to search for a Mexican who is said to be the real murderer of the man found in Spear's Lake a year ago, wires from that city today that he has the man in charge and will be home tomorrow. The conflicting stories told of this murder make it rather difficult to ascertain the true story of the murder, but it would appear from subsequent events that Bustamento, the man arrested in Los Angeles is the one that fired the shot and beat the head of the Mexican Jimenez to a pulp. After the murder Bustamento and another Mexican gathered up the effects of the murdered man and sold them wherever they could find a sale. The fellow who was in camp with Bustamento and Jimenez is now in jail here, being held as an accessory.

Do you know that more real danger lurks in a common cold than in any other of the minor ailments? The safe way is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a thoroughly reliable preparation, and rid yourself of the cold as quickly as possible. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

Bond Election.

No one who has a dollar's worth of property in Mohave county should fail or neglect to register their vote in favor of the good roads bonds, at the election to be held next Tuesday. Good roads are an index of the country and people and we would have all the world know that we are progressive and have an abiding faith in the future of the county. So great is our faith in the future of this county of ours that we believe many hundreds of thousands of dollars could be spent on the roads to make possible the great internal development that would be brought about by this great work. We need the roads and it is up to the people to go out and get them.

Dissolution of Copartnership

Notice is hereby given that the copartnership heretofore existing between Robert Rosco and Calder Herring under the firm name of Rosco & Herring, is this day dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Herring retiring from the business. Robert Rosco will hereafter conduct the business on his own account, collecting all bills of the firm and paying all debts.

ROBERT ROSCO.

Kingman, February 10, 1913.

Nobody likes the man who talks too much. Part of our service is to sell goods that speak for themselves

VALUE; that's our cardinal principle; value to you, in every item, in every business day, to see that for your money we give value—better value, if possible, than anywhere else.
